

Trenchless Elevated

Rocky Mountain Chapter of North American Society for Trenchless Technology (NASTT) Annual Regional Conference

PUBLIC SECTOR SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

Application Deadline: Friday, September 22, 2023

Public Sector Scholarships for Trenchless Elevated will be awarded based on budget availability, the number of applications received, and general candidate suitability based on whether past scholarships have been awarded and/or how many candidates are being considered through any given employer. A limited number of scholarships are available.

Applicants must be with a municipal or public utility in Colorado, Montana, Nebraska, Kansas, Utah, North Dakota, South Dakota, or Wyoming. Applicants are not required to be current members of NASTT. Please see the second page of this form for the complete policy.

HOW TO APPLY:

Complete and submit the form to Christine Barnes at info@rmnastt.org. Applications will be reviewed in the order they are received and are granted on a first come first serve basis.

First name:	_____	Last names:	_____
Job title:	_____	Agency name:	_____
Email:	_____	Phone:	_____
Address:	_____	City, State, Zip:	_____

1. Are you currently a NASTT member? YES NO
2. Have you attended a NASTT Rocky Mountain Chapter event before? YES NO
3. Are other members of your organization planning to attend the upcoming Trenchless Elevated?
 YES NO NOT SURE
4. Are other members of your organization applying for a scholarship to Trenchless Elevated?
 YES NO NOT SURE
5. Have you received a scholarship from the NASTT Rocky Mountain Chapter before?
 YES NO

NASTT'S ROCKY MOUNTAIN CHAPTER PUBLIC SECTOR SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM POLICY

Eligibility

Scholarship applicants must be a full-time employee of one of the following organizational types located within Colorado, Montana, Nebraska, Kansas, Utah, North Dakota, South Dakota, or Wyoming:

- “Municipal” - Defined as an incorporated or chartered governmental unit or local council authority providing infrastructure services, either urban or rural, to cities, towns, villages, townships, boroughs, counties, hamlets, regions, or districts.
- “Public Utility” - Defined as a business that furnishes an everyday necessity to the public at large providing water, electricity, natural gas, telephone service, and other essentials. Utilities may be publicly or privately owned.
- “Other” - Defined as Federal government, including Military; State government; Provincial government; and Institutional organizations such universities, colleges, medical campus, or any special purpose facility maintaining infrastructure.

Individuals employed by governmental or public corporations via short term contractual arrangements are not eligible for this program. Should a scholarship recipient's employment end or be terminated prior to commencement of Trenchless Elevated, then the scholarship shall be rescinded by NASTT's Rocky Mountain Chapter with no transfer to an alternate attendee. NASTT's Rocky Mountain Chapter reserves the right to define and determine eligibility of this program as well as cancel, modify, or terminate all enrollments.

Care and confidentiality shall be exercised by NASTT's Rocky Mountain Chapter to guarantee privacy protection for all personal information submitted. Incomplete or indecipherable applications shall be rejected. All information contained in the scholarship application must be complete, true and verifiable.

Terms & Conditions for Acceptance

Notices of award shall be by email. If a scholarship is awarded, applicants must respond and confirm their acceptance by the deadline date as set by NASTT's Rocky Mountain Chapter in the email notice. If the applicant does not respond to the scholarship offer by the date outlined in the email offer, the scholarship shall be rescinded without appeal.

Scholarships are non-transferable and have no redeemable cash value.

NASTT's Rocky Mountain Chapter does not accept responsibility for the scholarship recipient(s) while onsite for Trenchless Elevated or during travel periods to and from the event. The scholarship recipient(s) and their employer shall indemnify and hold harmless NASTT's Rocky Mountain Chapter, and their affiliate agents, from and against any claim, demand, loss, expense, damage and any other liability or prejudice arising during or in connection with participation in this program.

Professional and ethical behavior is expected and required at all times while attending Trenchless Elevated and NASTT's Rocky Mountain Chapter reserves the right to rescind a scholarship at any time without appeal.